You may have clocked fewer miles and room nights this year, but you are no less discerning with your choices, as one can tell from the list of winners at the Conde Nast Traveller Readers' Travel Awards 2020.

For its 10th edition, the CNT Readers' Travel Awards went virtual. The winners were revealed over five films that played out on our social media channels. RTA 2020 was presented in association with CRED. SVAMI Drinks was on board as Partner and Priority Pass from Collinson and Forest Essentials were the Associate Partners. Prizes for participants of the survey were courtesy the Preferred Hotels & Resorts. And the awards themselves were accepted by the staff at the hotels, airlines and airports—the very people who deliver the service and experience you enjoy the most.

Rajasthan emerged as your favourite place to holiday in India, and it seems you love flying Vistara around the country. You picked France, followed by Switzerland and Thailand, as your choice of destination for vacations abroad. Singapore Airlines was your favourite airline for international travel, and Changi ended up as your favourite international airport yet again.

We know how much you know and love your hotels and your picks, shall we say, are absolutely top-class!
