

INDIA INTERNATIONAL CITY GUIDES TRENDS THE LIST 2019 MORE ▾

From luxe camps to earthy lodges to comfy hotels, we list the 50 most luxurious stays for your next safari

Aarti Cooper

PUBLISHED: APR 10, 2018 | 17:14:36 IST

The Royal Tent with a private pool at Sher Bagh, Ranthambore.

Luxury camps that redefine roughing it out, eco-friendly resorts that offer absolute comfort amid nature, resorts furnished with greenery and wildlife—here’s a round-up of the finest stays across India that assure the best base to launch your wildlife-safari discoveries:

RAJASTHAN

Sher Bagh

The private-dining experience at Sher Bagh, Ranthambore.

One of the first camps of its kind, this SUJÁN Luxury property is reminiscent of the 1920s safari encampments that used to be frequented by erstwhile royalty. The hotel provides personalised service and a fantastic safari experience, with newly refurbished jeeps and excellent guides. There are 12 hand-stitched canvas tents spread across the property. While the Royal Suite comes with its own private heated pool, the Luxury Suite has an open-air tree shower and a garden. Be sure to avail of the hotel’s signature outdoor spa treatment under the shade of a peepul tree. Website; doubles from Rs46,000. Getting there: It takes just a little over 3hrs to reach from Jaipur Airport. Closest national park: Ranthambore National Park is 12km away.