

Meet the heroes who are fighting for India’s wildlife

While most of us go to the forests as tourists on a safari, these individuals are hard at work to protect what little is left of the wilderness in India

615

Geetika Jain

OCTOBER 24, 2016

L-R (top): Purna Bindra, Nirmal Kulkarni, Dr K Ullas Karanth. L-R (bottom): Bittu Sahgal, Belinda Wright, Anil & Pam Malhotra

10/15

Anjali & Jaisal Singh

Owners and creative directors, Suján Luxury
Even more impressive than the creation of small and distinct luxury camps in wilderness areas (Jawai, Sher Bagh and The Serai) is their company, Suján (www.sujanluxury.com), whose business model employs local villagers, and