

WHAT TO PACK

Deciding what to pack on your visit to India can be a daunting exercise. In order for your experience to be as enjoyable as possible, we have put together a small list of essentials to assist you.

- A pair of long trousers
- A long sleeve cotton shirt, cotton t-shirts
- Comfortable trousers for sightseeing
- Comfortable walking shoes/track shoes/hiking boots for walks
- Wide Brim Hat/ Panama, Safari Hat
- Swimming costume/ bathing suit
- Windbreaker/Light Jacket
- Light linen or cotton sundress
- A light fleece or long sleeve shirt
- Shawl
- Sandals
- Pair of closed toe shoes
- Sunglasses, lip balm, mosquito repellent (mosquito repellent is provided for all our guests, but you are welcome to bring along your favourite brand).
- Camera, memory cards, chargers & adapters.

Please note that Legs, shoulders and upper arms need to be covered at all times when visiting places of worship and our local communities.

The early mornings and evenings can be cold during the winter in Rajasthan ( November- February) so we recommend packing accordingly:

- A warm jacket or winter coat
- Warm beanie, winter hat and scarf
- Gloves
- Long sleeve shirt with thermal under garments.
- Warm Jumper

Whatever you feel comfortable wearing for meals and lounging around the properties and pool area is up to you of course. As a guide line in the evenings people to tend to smarten up a bit but this is my no means a rule!

Do I Need Sunscreen?

Spending lots of time outside under the Indian skies we do advise that you bring a high SPF factor sunscreen. Our rangers will have sunscreen with them but they might not always have your preferred label so we suggest bringing your own. .
